After reading the memoir and learning about your author on Re:Collection, how would you describe your author’s identity? Make an identity concept map for your author.

What kinds of discrimination and persecution did your author face due to their Jewish identity? How did your author and their family react to the discrimination and persecution?
3. How did going into hiding affect your author's identity, and how did they feel about hiding their identity?

4. How did going into hiding affect the author's relationship with their family?